

[Tips for clients]

For international events consider your interpreting requirements at the planning stage.

Please tell us all about it in as much detail as possible.

Reserve your interpreters well in advance and save unnecessary expense.

Allow your interpreters the best possible working environment.

Allow enough space and time to install the technology.

Let your interpreters have as much material as possible.

We are confident the event will be a big success!